As you see from the heading of our new joint newsletter for Oakham and Stamford, the Bishop has formally amalgamated what were the parishes of St Joseph, Oakham with St Thomas of Canterbury, Exton and St Mary & St Augustine, Stamford into one parish - the Parish of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Eternal High Priest, by Rutland Water. While the Churches continue to retain their dedication, from now onwards all we do will be under the umbrella of our new parish name, hence our new joint newsletter and, in time, a new joint website. As we move forward as one parish there will be changes to get used to, as seen initially in respect of the newsletter where information for what was two separate parishes is now having to be combined as one in the same amount of space. To help with this, anything specific to Oakham will be highlighted in Green, anything specific to Stamford will be highlighted in Red and anything specific to Exton will be in Purple; everything else common to all will be in normal typeface. Our union as one Parish is important going forward and I hope that, even through the changes this brings, we can grow closer together to each other in charity and to Our Lord Jesus Christ, Eternal High Priest. Canon Peter

Please pray for the following who are ill in our Parish: Meryl Vincent, Angela Kirkup, Claire Smith, Ita Jones, Janet and Barry Chalmers-Stevens, Monique Pryke, Elisabeth Simpson, Judy Nash, John Rhodes, Amanda Messer, and Marie Thérèse Goldberg. If you would like to add anyone to the sick list (permission required). Please contact Maria rcchurchoakham@dioceseofnottingham.uk

If you yourself are not well, or you know of any parishioners who are not well, in hospital, or require a visit from the Priest or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, please let either Carrie Ann or Maria know using either email address: office.catholicstamford@dioceseofnottingham.uk rcchurchoakham@dioceseofnottingham.uk

It is not possible for the Priest to know who is or who is not at Mass on any given weekends given the numbers attending and across two communities: he himself is praying the Mass and not taking a register or checking who is there or not. Please do not assume the Priest will simply 'miss me' at Mass and be in touch. If you yourself are not well or know of someone who is not well, please make contact as above with the parish. If we do not know, we cannot help.

Prayers for those who have recently died. In your charity, please pray for the repose of the souls of those who have recently died, especially Elizabeth Jones (RIP) whose Requiem Mass will take place on the 16th January at 1 pm in St Joseph's Oakham. Please keep her family very much in your prayers.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace. Amen

It is the Lord's House, which Jesus taught was a house of prayer" (Mt 21:13) and thus should be used according to its purpose. The House of God, where dwells the Real Presence of God, must be treated with ongoing reverence.

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. "In the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth and under the earth" (Phil 2:10). Christ's name is chosen in heaven, and the Angel Gabriel announces it when he informs the Blessed Virgin of the incarnation: "Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus". It is a name that has marvellous implications, for it means "saviour."

The very name bespeaks the magnitude of His mission, His infinite love, a love that will cause Him to offer Himself up for us.

Canon Peter: Is taking a short post Christmas break from 14th January to 21st January. I am very grateful to Mgr. John Hadley who will be supplying for me at Stamford next weekend.

Stamford 200 Club: The draw for December took place last Sunday and the first prize of £200 went to Noel Kent; the second prize of £100 to Non Allan and the final prize of £50 went to Victoria Bullimore. Congratulations to our winners.

Stamford Christian Unity Ecumenical Service: Takes place at St Martin's Church, High Street St Martin's, Stamford on Sunday 18th January at 5.30 pm. All welcome.

Stamford Coffee Morning: Get the New Year off to a friendly start and catch up at our coffee morning on Thursday 15th January from 10.00 am to 12.00 pm in St Mary & St Augustine's Church Hall. Enjoy hot drinks, refreshments and chat. All are welcome from across our parish. Stay for the duration or just drop in. We look forward to seeing you then.
